Paris, March 10 .- "La Petite Bouche," :

ed the manifold pleasures of a bachelo life, yearns for a simple, homelike exist-

He marries Andrée, an attractive young and for what she imagines to be love because of the awkward crude brutality of bidding, is compelled, mer frisky bachelor existence;

piress and real love.

HONOR MRS. CUYLER AT HOME DINNER

Many in Society Attend Affair Given for Her by Mrs. Nicoll.

MISS MILDRED RICE BACK FROM FLORIDA

Colonial Dames Sew for Seaman's Institute-Sale for Italian Mission.

Mrs. DeLancey Nicoll gave a dinner last night at her home, No. 23 East 39th street, for Mrs. Cornelius C. Cluyler. The table was decorated with Killarney roses, maidenhair ferns and smilax.

The guests included the Hon, and Mrs. Alfred Anson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Duke William F. Sheehan, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bourke Cockran, Mr. and Mrs. John Dyneley Prince, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Barney, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Taylor Pyne, Mrs. William P. Douglas, Mrs. M. Lawrence Keene, Thomas F. Ryan, Erskine Hewitt and Phoenix Ingraham.

sewing class which works for the benefit of the fresh air fund of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine was held yesterday morning at the home of Mrs. Richard 1 West 29th street, This class supports a district nurse in the city and a country house for the poor at Tompkins

Hunter Potter, Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, Mrs. B. Aymar Sands, Mrs. Frederick Pearson, Mrs. Clarence M. Hyde, Mrs. Edward Renshaw Jones, Mrs. Willam Church Osborn, Mrs. J. Muhlenberg Bailey, Mrs. Henry M. Tilford, Mrs. Rudolph Kissel, Mrs. James A. Blair, Mrs. Walter Jennings, Mrs. William E Benjamin, Mrs. Joseph S. Auerbach, Mrs. Franklin R. Lord, Mrs. J. Hull Browning, Mrs. James H. Aldrich, Mrs. William H. Crocker, Mrs. J. Tuckerman Tower, Mrs. H. Wilmerding Payne and Miss Julia G

The class will meet next Tuesday at the ome of Mrs. Frederick Roosevelt, No. 1 East 50d street.

Members of the Society of Colonial Dames, who have formed a sewing class in aid of the Scaman's Institute, had their second meeting in Lent yesterday morning at the home of Mrs. Alfred M. Hoyt. No. 943 Fifth avenue. The next meeting of the class will be held at the home of Mrs. Estelle de Peyster Hosmer, No. 863

There will be a sale of linen, cretons and fancy articles for the benefit of the Italian Mission, No. 203 Elizabeth street, on Wednesday afternoon, March 25, at the home of Mrs. Charles James Welch, No. 22 East 80th street.

Among those interested in this charity are Mrs. Frederic Neilson, Mrs. William F. Sheehan, Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Cecil Barrett and Miss Katherine

Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel, jr., gave a dinner for thirty last night at her home, No. 1015 Fifth avenue

Mrs. J. Kearny Warren gave a luncheon yesterday at her home, No. 135 East

Mrs. Ferdinand M. Thieriot and the Misses Thieriot, of South Orange, N. J.,

Another of the dinner dances organized by Miss Annabella Olyphant will be given to-night at the Hotel Gotham.

Henry Villard and Miss Annie B. Jennings are among the patronesses of a series of dances of the College Assemblies, the first of which will be held tonight in the Della Robbia Room of the Miss Juliana Cutting will give another of her the dansants to-day at the St. Regis.

Mr. and Mrs. Norrie Seller gave a dinner last night at the Plaza.

Mrs. William Lowe Rice and her daughter, Miss Mildred Gautier Rice, returned to their apartments at the Piaza yesterday from Palm Beach, where they spent

Mr. and Mrs. George Andre have returned from their honeymoon trip abroad and are at the Hitz-Carlton, Mrs. Andre was Miss Laura V. Webb, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Egerton Webb. Mr. and Mrs. Andre were married on January 14 in the Church of the Heavenly Rest.

Alfonso de Navarro has gone to White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., to spend a few Miss Reatrice Burrill, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Edward Livingston Burrill, and Miss Alexandra Emery, daughter of Mrs. Alfred Anson, will return to New York to-morrow from Palm Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernon S. Prentice are at the Gotham to remain until about May 1.

Mrs. Charles S. Presbrey will give a reception this afternoon at her home, No. 55 Park avenue. Receptions will also be given to-day by Mrs. Samuel C. Van Dusen, Mrs. Robert G. Ingersoll and Mrs. Charles H. Ditson.

CONVERSE-MELBOURNE.

Great Neck, Long Island, March 10 .-Miss Nadine Melbourne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Melbourne, of White- | Thaw. Stone, and a niece of Mrs. Berry Wall, and James Vall Converse, son of Mrs. G. Vall Converse, of No. 48 East 78th street, Manhattan, were married here this after-506n in All Saints' Church by the Rev. Gordon Douglas Moxsey.

The bridesmalds were Miss Dorothy Merritt, of Manhattan, and Miss Leo Rochester, of Whitestone, William S. Fairchild, jr., was best man. The ushers were Talbot Taylor, Montague Mostyn, William Prime, jr., and Converse Pierce. Es of Philadelphia. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of

DIPPEL PLANNING CENTURY SEASON

Operas During Winter Months Here.

The directors of the Century Theatre sent a series of light operas and oper-

Aborn will appear at the Metropolitan Cornelius. Opera House in Philadelphia, and will robably make a tour of the larger cities.

at the Century Theatre whereby the Century Opera Company will appear for a season of eight to ten weeks prior to he taking over of the theatre by Mr. Dippel, and for a like period after his

A man close to the Century Opera Comhad made overtures for the big play- forte part of the four Gypsy songs (Op.

"If Mr. Dippel's plan is accepted," said Mr. and Mrs. Francis Rogers, with gard to the best interests of the Century Musical Art Society gave us last night Bruno Huhn at the piano, will give a progard to the best interest.

Gopera Company. While it is true that the chorus would not have been borne up the audiences at the Century Theatre with a pianoferte.

Bruno Huhn at the piano, will give a program to the best interest.

Gopera Company. While it is true that the chorus would not have been borne up the chorus wo during the last few weeks have not been satisfactory, the sales for this week and quality of tone, finer nuance and better the week to come are very much better. taste than at this concert. The division of the season next year, if such division be made, will not be because Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderblit, Mrs. Ed. of lack of public support of the Century ward N. Breitung, Mrs. Otto Kahn, Mrs. Opera Company. In any event, nothing will be decided for several weeks."

TO SING NEW OPERA SOON "L'Amore Medico" Will Be Heard at Metropolitan.

House Friday night of next week.

Victor Herbert's "Madeleine" will fol- tive throng of visitors. Monday evening, "La Gioconda" on Pet Dog." Although not generally known Monday evening, "La Gioconda on Pet Dog." Although not generally known Wednesday, "Der Rosenkavaller" on as a painter, Mine. Bernhardt's friends, it is said, have always recognized her day evening, "Orfeo et Erudice" on Sattalent in this direction. She never sold and "Hoborgram" on any of the same of the urday afternoon, and "Lohengrin" on any of her paintings, but gave them to Saturday night.

PALM BEACH WOMEN LAND BIG AMBERJACKS Romney.

Mrs. Harris's Catch Weighed Twenty-eight Pounds and Mrs. Cady's Thirty.

Francis Harris caught a 28-pound amber- from the German piece which ran for jack this morning in competition for the more than two hundred nights at Adolf francis franci Bertha Ware Cady caught one weighing is by John Briquet. thirty pounds.

Watson, Miss Mimi Scott, Miss Elise Blanche Ring is appearing in "When Ladew and Harvey Ladew left Palm Claudia Smiles." Beach to-night for New York.

Among those entertaining dinner parties at the Beach Club to-night were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wagstaff, who had twelve at their table; Russell Colt, party of eighteen; Mr. and Mrs. John Francis Harris, twelve; Mr. and Mrs. St. John Wood, Mr. and Mrs. St. John Owen Kennan and Mr. and Mrs. William Years Ago," at the Shubert Theatre, on

John H. Bromiey, of Philadelphia, ar-rived here to-day in his boat, the Lucinda. Charles Rogers and Nathan Hirsch. El Clarence Jones will leave Saturday for New York after spending several terday for a short indoor season, which 8:25weeks here

Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Weatherbee, made for Mr. Greet to appear this sum-

Mr. and Mrs. John Dunbar Adams, who have the Spray Villa, will leave here open alr performances have never been March 25 for Hot Springs, Va.

Mrs. Mallory was bostess at a tea given at the houseboat this afternoon.

After Clarence M. Busch.

After a honeymoon tripsabroad Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Busch.

After a honeymoon tripsabroad Mr. and Mrs. Converse will live at No. 24 West
Site of the ballroom of the Poinciana
Flights' in the ballroom of the Poinciana
Saturday evening Among the subacribers Saturd Mrs. A. Sidney Carpenter, Miss Grace whom he will appear in Roi Cooper Me-Stroyed the summer cottage of Professor Thompson, Mrs. A. Sidney Carpenter, and Grand Gran

DAMROSCH SCORES MUSIC TRIUMPH

May Present Series of Light Programme Given by Musical Art Society at Carnegie Hall Is Big Success.

tre contemplating a change in policy for ever put forward a better programme next year whereby Andreas Dippel will than that of the regular Easter concert, take possession of the Central Park play- which was given in Carnegle Hall last nouse during the winter months and pre- night by the Musical Art Society, is Mr. Dippel has secured various light Sunday's Tribune. To appreciate the operas in Europe, and is at present en- charm of Palestrina's "Laudate Domgaging a company for their production. Inum," and especially Des Pres's "Ave Should be take possession of the Century Verum," with its vocal chastity, it must Theatre during the winter months of next be heard, and heard in contrast with the ear, as is now contemplated, the present best of the music represented by the entury Opera Company of the Messrs. modern composers, such as Bruckner and

There was delightful music in a divertimento in D by Mozart which no burg, Michalek, the Polish recruit, and The present plan is for a divided season doubt set many minds to wondering why Queiss, the anti-feminist under officer so charming and yet so easily accessible; by the fact that the instrumental parts had to be copied for last night's parts. pany admitted last night that Mr. Dippel | The orchestral arrament of the piano 112) by Brahms. Why Brahms's much should be changed cannot be justified.

The chorus never sang with better

BRANDUS ART ON VIEW Picture by Sarah Bernhardt

Attracts Much Attention.

Tastefully hung against a background of maroon plush, in the newly arranged exhibition rooms of the Fifth Avenue Art Galleries, the 124 paintings by ninety-four Wolf-Ferrari's new opera, "L'Amore ancient and modern masters that are to be sold to-morrow and Friday evenings n America at the Metropolitan Opera by James P. Silo for Edward Brandus attracted yesterday a large and apprecialow the Wolf-Ferrari work. The other operas of the week will be "Julien" on vas by Sarah Bernhardt, entitled "Her

The artists represented in this collection include Corôt, Ziem, Lawrence, Wiggins, Daubigny, Dupré, Schreyer and

THEATRICAL NOTES.

Oliver Morosco engaged Walter Lawrence and Frances Cameron yesterday to play leading parts in the English ver-By Telegraph to The Tribune 1 sion of "Auction Pinochle," the musical palm Beach, Fla., March 10-Mrs. John comedy, by Edward Paulson, adapted Company B of Squadron A attended Miss Mai D. Watson, W. Whitewright last night the Lyric Theatre, where

In order to avoid conflict with the other attractions opening Monday night

Monday will be for the benefit of Temple

Ben Greet commenced rehearsals yeswill begin on Monday at Oberlin College. James Speer will return to Philadelphia His open air tour starts on April 16 in Savannah. Arrangements have been of New York, were among the arrivals to- mer with his company at most of the important universities and colleges in the 8:45 country, including the Southwest, where

Mary Nash will play the leading part

NEW DRAMATIST IN PARIS HONOR DE VINNE AS Claude Gevel's Play, "La Petite Bouche," an Instant Success.

ight three-act comedy by a young and Typothetæ Holds Memorial therto unknown dramatist. Claude Sevel, produced to-night at the Theatre Meeting, Where Trib-Michel, is a decided Parisian success. It is the story of a middle-aged man of the utes Are Paid. world, one Georget, who, having exhaust-

her first husband, a savant who was in-Only Follower of Gutenberg Ever capable of arousing or comprehending Honored by a College Degree, true feminine sensibility. Andrée marrie Georget merely for social advantages and Says One Speaker.

emfort, while Georget, at his platonic when Georget is about to enter into a iaison with Andrée's dearest, closest and, olf, this affording the entering wedge the feelings of genuine sentiment that, W. Bothwell, president of the Typothetæ, amusing episodes, finally unites the marwere J. Clyde Oswald, editor of ried couple in bonds of ideal fireside hap-

This delicate yet merry marivaudage is splendidly played by Abel Tarride, by of the Groller Club. Germaine Reuver and by Madeleine Carlier. The young author, Claude Gevel, had an enthusiastic reception. "ZAPFENSTREICH" AT

IRVING PLACE

Beyerlein's Military Drama Revived with Great Success.

Franz Beverlein's military play, "Zap enstreich" ("Taps")-a sensational sucess of eight or ten years ago-was reived last night at the Irving Place Theatre. Miss Hansi Arnstaedt, the visiting Berlin star, played Klaercher, the only feminine role. Mr. Gustav Waldau is now filling engagements in Philadelphia and Baltimore, so Director Chris Lauffen, one in which he won distinction naturally recalled to many that gala me, when "Zapfenstreich" was given with a cast including Ferdinand Bonn, Rudolf Christians, Harry Walden, Gustav von Seyffertitz, Otto Ottbert and Miss Hedwig von Ostermann. That was a muster roll of remarkable balance and strength.

The performance last night was also Mr. Rub and Mr. Rahe contributed exwe should hunt so hard for orchestral The house was crowded and enthusiastic.

Volkhard

Time Curtain Rises To-day

۰	2:00—America
	tausting Bushand Knickerbocker
	Aida
	Aida Century The Midnight Girl 44th Street
ì	A. TA TIME LITTLE CALE NEW MINESTER COMMINE
	a se that theles Cashio
	Potash & PerlmutterCohan's
	Prince 1 area . Million Chart
	Zabern Adolph Philipp
	mine Vellow Tielest Entinke
	A Thousand Years Ago Shubert
	a to Carl
ì	Grumpy
	What Would You Do? Hudson
1	Too Many Cooks 39th Street
1	Peg o' My HeartCort
1	Seven Keys to Baldpate Astor
1	When Claudia Smiles Lyric
1	Queen of the MoviesGlobe
ı	Along Came Ruth
1	and Things That Count Playhouse
1	Help Wanted Maxine Elliott's
	The Misleading Lady Fulton
	The Last ResortLongacre
	Legend of LeonoraEmpire
	Five-Play Bill Princess
	Janet McIlwaine. Jardin de Danse
	The PhilandererLittle
ı	THE THIRDSELECT THEATPES
ŧ	STOCK AND ONE WEEK THEATRES.
į	2:15—German Stock CoIrving Place
ı	The Conspiracy Academy
ı	Adele Bronx

....Academy man Stock Co... The Madcap Duchess. The Blindness of Virtue. ...Royal

VAUDEVILLE HOUSES. . Fifth Ave. .Colonial .Palace

. Bronx

GREATEST PRINTER

WAS AUTHORITY IN HIS CRAFT

Press, as the greatest printer of his times at the Aldine Association last night by the auspices of the Typothetæ of the City of New York, of which Mr. De Vinne was first secretary and later president. James attended the Century showed marked en- to New Dorp. presided at the meeting, and the speakers American Printer"; Robert Underwood uson, former editor of "The Century Magazine," and Walter Gillis, secretary

Mr. Oswald gave a brief sketch of Mr. De Vinne's life and his work as a printer, speaking especially of the series of books the qualities that made De Vinne great both as a printer and a man, Mr. Oswald

The qualities of ideal citizenship may be grouped under five heads-righteousness, culture, industry, justice and vision The possession of all of these qualities in a slight degree, or one of them to a great Clarion degree, makes a great man. Mr. De Vinne possessed them all in some degree. believe he made more money at printing success on the stage, and her fame went than any other man, and I doubt if any throughout Europe. Her marriage to Ed test of success is that it can be ccess, he will always be an inspiration he a hope to those who still have those days ahead of them

Mr. Johnson said that in reading De Vinne's books on printing he was struck both by the bulk, the clarity of expression and the literary quality of his work. He wrote more on printing, he said, than any other man who ever lived, and was distinguished both as the master printer of his times and as an authority in his Mr. Underwood told how he first met

De Vinne, when as a member of the house of Francis Hart & Co. he undertook the contract to print "The St. Nicholas Maga-"Time and trouble were nothing to him," he said. "He always aimed to give to his

He might be called the Goethals of the printing trade, for he sucity. He convinced the men who worked a machine, but for a man, and won them by his fairness. books, but the most beautiful and useful Linden Bowen, a sister of Clarence Winbook of all was his life of unfaltering

Mr. Gillia presented the resolutions ister to Persia.

ife work.

Vinne's memory resolutions in his memory morrow, and the burial will be at Greenwere adopted by the Typothetæ.

Wm. W. Naughton Dead.

San Francisco, March 10.-W. W. Naughton, president of the San Francisco ing writers, and known throughout the country, died to-day at his home from heart disease, after an illness of a fortnight.

Naughton was born in Auckland, N. Z., on July 31, 1854, and began his career as an American newspaper writer in 1886 in San Francisco. He learned the newspaper business from the printer's case up, beginning on "The New Zealand Herald" in the morning, write it up at noon, and put his own story into type in the after- of a book, "Recollections of a Veteran,

"High Jinks" Celebration.

The "High Jinks" company now appearng at the Casino Theatre celebrated its 150th performance last night. To commemorate the event atomizers filled with to the women in the orchestra and first balcony. After the performance a "High monia. Mr. Dougherty was in his set of the company at the Folles Marigny on atre.

Dance of the Harmony Club, Hotel Astor, evening.

Public lectures of the Board of Education, 8 15 p. m. Manhattan: Public School 95. West Houston and Varick streets. "The gestiution of the Ship." George H. Streak of Lexington avenue, "Corn Is King of vops." Dr. George Donaldson, Cooper Union, Third avenue and Stin street, "Athens and the Revival of Helienism in Greece," Dr. Jerome Hall Raymond, East Side House Settlement, 76th street and East River, "The Balkan Nations," Sidney Neville Usaher, Public Library, No. 305. West 15th street, "The Call of the Deser," James F. Wilson, Young Men's Christian Association Hall, No. 5 West 12th Street, "These Prevention in New York," Dr. Donald B. Armstrong.

Dr. Donald H. Armstrong.

peated Before Big Audience. "Alda, which was the opening opera of the Century Opera Company season. and which all in all marked the high water mark of the company's achievenent, was repeated last night at the 'entury. The cast was little changed from the opening performance of the season, except that Miss Enrica Clay last night sang Aida. Miss Clay, who was heard last spring with the Zuro Opera Company, on the Bowery, and who then appeared under the name of Enrica Clay Dillon, sang with plentiful tone, but with method of voice production which at times brought forth unpleasing results. Morgan Kingston's fine voice was again effective as Rhadames, but he was about an opera stage.

Miss Howard's costumes and her drasinging, but Mr. Kreidler's resonant tones gave pleasure as Amonasro. Mr. Szendrei that of the September premiere. One of

OBITUARY.

ALFRED CHARLES EDWARDS.

f By Cable to The Tribune ! Paris March 10.-The death is an unced of A. C. Edwards, editor in chief 'Le Matin.

Alfred Charles Edwards was born at onstantinople on July 10, 1857. He was the founder and for many years editor of "Le Matin" as the culmination of a long career in journalism, during which he was editor of such publications as 'Le Figaro," "Le Gaulois" and "Le Edwards's wife was Mile. Misia Godebska, said to have been the daughter of a wards took place in 1907. keep her stage name of Lucie Lantelme. Three years ago the couple were cruis the River Rhine, near the Dutch fronportance of the parties concerned the officials tried to keep the details of the sinuations against Edwards.

These so preyed upon his mind that his death is said to have been chiefly the result of worry over the affair. Some six Mile. Lentelme's death thieves broke into the tomb in search of an $80,000 pearl necklace which was buried with the body. This revived the story of the circumstances of the actress's death.

PRUF. RUFUS BYAM RICHARDSON

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.) Clifton Springs, N. Y., March 19 .- Professor Rufus Byam Richardson, archæologist, died here to-night from pneumonia, in his sixty-ninth year

Professor Richardson, whose home was at Woodstock, Conn., was one of the employers the best service that was in world's greatest authorities on Greek an- Katrina Trask; "Babette of Beaujolais," tiquities. He was born at Westford, David Stevens and Victor Mass., and was graduated from Yale. ceeded by his firmness and his congenial- For ten years, from 1893 to 1903, he was director of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens, and he devoted at Eretria and Corinth. In 1876 Mr. Richardson married Alice throp Bowen, of "The Independent," and of Herbert Wolcott Bowen, former Min-passed by the Groller Club on Mr. De Among his writings are "Vacation Days Vinhe's death, and went on to tell of his in Greece," "Greece Through the Stereoown personal relations with him in that scope" and "History of Greek Sculpt-He leaves three children, Mrs. "Had he done nothing but raise maga- Albert M. Lythgoe, wife of the curator zine art to its present stage," said Mr. of the Egyptian department of the Mei-"he would have attained a great ropolitan Museum; Gardner Richardson with White, Weld & Co., bankers, and Following the addresses and the reading Miss Dorothy Richardson. The funeral, of a number of letters honoring De which will be private, will take place to-

MATT J. CRAWFORD.

wood.

Matt J. Crawford, of the managerial staff of the Hotel Belmont and well Press Club, dean of Pacific Coast sport- known in hotel circles in this city for many years, died on Monday at Pass Christian, Miss., from pneumonla. Crawford went to Pass Christian a few months ago to rest for a while at the Gulf Hotel, which he opened almost forty years ago. He was suffering from a physical disability which made it imperative for him to rest. He became ill with pneumonia a few weeks ago. Mr. Crawford was associated with the in 1870. In his youth he was noted as a Hotel Mariborough under the old regime. boxer, carsman, runner, swimmer and and from there went to the Murray Hill, marksman, and it was not uncommon for When the Hotel Belmont was opened. him to win an athletic or shooting match | eight years ago, he was engaged as one of the managerial staff. He was the author nade up of the recollections of Mr. Crawford's experiences in New York hotels.

JAMES E. DOUGHERTY.

James E. Dougherty, formerly Deputy Commissioner of Charities and well known in Catholic circles, died early yes-'High Jinks' perfume were distributed terday morning at his home, No. 881 Crotona Park North, The Bronx, from pneu-Jinks" party was given to the members enty-fourth year. He retired from the coal business twenty years ago to devote time of his death he was a vice-president of the Superior Council and president of the Bronx Particular Council of the St.

Boston, March 10.-S. Reed Anthony,

banker and broker, a member of the New York Stock Exchange and a director in many corporations, died at his home here to-night, aged fifty-three. He recently was elected vice-commodore of the East-

"AIDA" AGAIN AT CENTURY G. W. VANDERBILT'S BURIAL Season's Opening Opera Re- Body in Moravian Cemetery at

New Dorp. The body of George W. Vanderbilt was placed in a crypt in the Vanderbilt mausoleum in the Moravian Cemetery at New Dorp, Staten Island, yesterday. It was accompanied to the cemetery by twentyfive motor cars, in which were friends and relatives who followed the motor hearse from the home of Mr. Vanderbilt's sister, Mrs. William Douglas Sloane, No.

2 West 52d street, Manhattan, Guards were stationed in the cemetery to keep out all but those invited to the funeral service. Guards were also place1 at the mausoleum to maintain a watch until the crypt is scaled. The burial service was read by Bishop David H. Greer. This occupied only a as wooden a soldier as ever stepped upon few minutes, and afterward most of those who attended the funeral returned to

The funeral procession left the Sloans home shortly before 19 o'clock. The cars were driven rapidly to the Municipal Ferry, where the ferryboat Richmond was in waiting to carry the party to St. of the Alda, was nearly as effective as George, Staten Island. From this point the route lay through Bay street, to Stapleton, thence to Concord and Grant City

> The party arrived at the Moravian lemetery at 11:50 o'clock. Six policemen, our foot officers and two mounted men, kept all but the occupants of the twentyfive funeral cars out of the cemetery

AT F. T. MARTIN FUNERAL

Services Held in London-Body To Be Brought Here.

March 19 .- The funeral of Frederick Townsend Martin took place at Christ Church, Mayfair, at noon to-day, Among those present were Mrs. Bradley Martin, with her daughter, the Countess Earl of Craven, the Rev. L. Richardson William Gillett, Earl Howe, Colone Heaton, Viscount Uffington, Dr. Cummings Grant, Eveleigh Nash, Mrs. Coutts Stew art. Miss Helen Stewart, Lady Victoria Lowther, Mr. and Mrs. Millington Drake and the Marchieness of Dufferin and Ava. Wreaths were sent by Mrs. Bradley

Begins Her Lenten Recitals

and Sir Arthur and Lady Paget. The body

New York, which sails from Southampt

will be taken aboard the American liner

The first of Mme. Ranke's Lenten re be held to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock The following programme will be given by Mme. Ranke, with Miss Sybil King at the piano: "Hide and Seek." Van Dyke 'A Yellow Rose," Cawein; "Le Grand Scigneur," Drummond; "A Summer Romance," Gerrit Smith and F. S. Hastings: "The Sands O'Dee," Charles Kingsley and Frederick Clay; "Serenade in Seville," Robert Cameron Rogers and Fay Foster: "Before the Crucifix," Princes Wrede and Frank La Forge; and the Young Marie," Weatherby and F. H. Cowen: "Mors et Victoria," Mrs. When I am Dead My Dearest," Christina Rossetti and C. J. Bond; "Forever and a Day," Thomas Bailey Aldrich and Albert Mack; "Ferry Me Across the Water, much time to the American excavations Rossetti and Homer; "To You," Marte Beatrice Gannon and Oley Speaks.

DIED. Chapin, William B. Napier, Laura Donald, James. Parsons, Emmi Fornachon, Maurice Postley, Ediths Frankquist, E. N. C. Richardson, R. Gummere, Barker. Rood, Mathilds

BEEKMAN—At her home, No. 5 Neptune ave., New Rochelle, N. Y., on Sunday midnight, March 8, 1914, Adelaide Houghton, widow of Henjamin F. Beek-man. Funeral services Thursday, 4 p. m. Carriages meeting train leaving Grand Central Station 2:94. Interment convenience of family.

BILLIN-Virginia T. 3d month, 5th, widow of George Billin. Funeral at Friends' Meeting House, East 15th st. and Rutherfurd Piace, on 3d month, 12th, at 2 p. m.

CHAPIN—At Washington, D. C., Monday morning, March 9, 1914, William Bushnell, beloved husband of Elizabeth Brinckerhoff Chapin, of Englewood, N. J., in the 32th year of his age. Funeral at the residence of Mrs. Eibert A. Brinckerhoff, Palizade ave. Englewood, N. J., Thursday, March 12, 1914, on arrival of train leaving Eric R. R. Station, Jersey City, 1,29 p. m.

DONALD—On March 5, after a brief ill-ness, James, son of the late James and Elizabeth Donald, in his 32d year. Fu-neral services from the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. Robert Hogg, No. 143 Keap st., Brooklyn, on Wednesday at 2 p. m. Interment at convenience of the femily the family.

FORNACHON — Sunday, March 8, 1914, after a brief illness, Maurice Fornachon, in the 73d year of his age. Funeral services Wednesday, 11th inst., at 11 o'clock, at Stephen Merritt's Chapel, No. 22 Eighth ave. (near Zist at). Interment Valleau, Ridgewood, N. J. at the convenience of family. Neuchatel (Suisse) papers please copy.

FRANKQUIST—At Highland Park, on March 9, 1914, Euphemia N. Cook, wife of Gustav Edward Frankquist. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from her late residence. No. 211 Lincoln are. Livingston Manor, Highland Park, New Brunswick, N. J., on Thursday afternoon at 2,30 o'clock. GUMMERE—At New York, on the 2th inst., Barker Gummere. Relatives and friends are invited to attend the services at First Presbyterian Church, Trenton, N. J., on Thursday morning at Il o'clock.

HARGREAVES-On Tuesday, March 10, 1914, ats his residence, No. 1270 Bergen st., Brooklyn, Charles Le Roy Har-greaves. Notice of funeral hereafter.

Breaves. Notice of funcial horeafter.

JACKSON-At Yonkers, N. V. on Monday, March 9, 1914. Charlotte Bailey
Myers Jackson, widow of Thomas R.
Jackson, Funcral services at her late residence, No. 239 North Broadway.
Yonkers, Wednesday morning, at 19 o'clock. Interment at Vale Cemetery, Schenectady, N. Y., at convenience of family.

NAPIER—On Sunday, March 8, Laura D. Napier, wife of the late Alexander D. Napier, in her 81st year. Funeral ser-vices at her late residence. No. 6 Strong Place. Brooklyn, Wednesday, March 11, PARSONS-On March 10, at her home. Rye. N. Y. Emma, daughter of the late Arthur Wellesley and Catherine Clark Parsons, in the 72d year of her age. Funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at the Presbyterian Church, Rye, on arrival of train leaving Grand Central Station, New Haven Bailroad, at 2:15.

POSTLEY-On Sunday, March 8, 1914, Edith Servoss, beloved wife of Alexan-der Castle Postley. Services at her late residence, No. 266 West 95d st., on Wednesday, March II, at 16 a. m. In-terment at convenience of family. RICHARDSON Professor Rufus Byam Richardson, Ph. D., husband of Alice Bowen Richardson, on Tuesday, March 10, 1914, at Clifton Springs, N. Y., in the 69th year of his age, Funeral private.

ROOD-On March 6, at Berlin, Germany, Mathilde, widow of the late Ogden N, Rood, aged 79 years.

CEMETERIES.

THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY. 233d St. By Harlem Train and by Trolley. Office, 20 East 23d St., N. Y.